Campbell Primary Probe

Judges and registrars of elections at Altavista and Lynchburg precincts and a number of other citizens of Campbell county were witnesses before the grand jury today when they resumed their investigation of alleged irregularities in the August democratic primary in the county and also as to the manner in which a petition seeking to change the election was prepared.

M. L. Booth and J. W. Griffin, two members of the grand jury who also are members of the board of supervisors and were re-elected in the primary this year, were dismissed from the jury at their own request. Judge Don F. Halsey, who had selected the jury, emphasized that he had no doubt as to the honesty of these men or their fitness to serve on the investigating body, but he recognized that their position might be embarrassing and allowed them to withdraw.

The judge also warned the jury, which had reported to him last week and was told that its work had not been sufficiently thorough, that no perfunctory investigation would be satisfactory but that the court desired a full report as to what basis, if any, there might be for the charges that have been made.

Special inquiry was made today into charges that one man had voted twice—once at Lynchburg and once at Altavista—and it is understood that alleged irregularities at several other of the nine precincts mentioned in the election contest bill were inquired into.

All those whose names appeared on this contest bill and several other citizens of the county have been summoned to appear before the grand jury when it reconvenes on Friday morning and it is believed that the investigation will be completed at that time. Both questions of irregularities in the primary and in the preparation of the petition then will be considered and the report requested by Judge Halsey, in addition to any incidents that may be found, will be submitted at that time covering the work done by the jury today as well as that still to be done.

The grand jury at present is composed of C. H. Blomquist, foreman, and T. B. Norman, R. H. Dinwiddie, John R. Mason, R. H. Henderson, R. H. Chilton, and W. L. Garbee, Jr.—News, Sept. 27th.

DuPont--Darden

An engagement of much interest is that of Miss Constance Simons DuPont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. DuPont, of Granogue, Del., to Colgate W. Darden, Jr., of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colgate W. Darden, of Franklin, Va.

The engagement was announced Saturday evening at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. Pierre S. DuPont at their country home near Wilmington, Del. Miss DuPont has many friends in Norfolk, where she has often visited. Miss McCullough, Mr. Darden is a brother of Mrs. Harvey Lindsey, of Meadowbrook, and is a nephew of Mrs. John B. Abbott and Miss Mary Demson Pretlow, of this city, and Mr. F. B. Pretlow, of Appomattox—Norfolk Pilot.

PAMPLIN

Miss Katherine Gills, of Appomattox, was the guest of Mrs. E. E. Walker on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Abbott, of Oakville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Terry on Sunday.

Miss Lucile Moses who has been sick for the past few days, is able to be out again.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. O. E. Peterson. The program consisted of reports given by Mrs. Massey of the Bi-County Convention which met at White's Church and one given by Mrs. Peterson of the National Convention which met at Minneapolis. The reports were interesting and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner visited the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday morning. Mrs. Wagner gave an interesting talk in which she urged the Sunday School to come up to the standard and therefore do better work. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson while in town.

This is a big year for Swift's

Red Steer—make sure you get yours

I know one thing that's going to make bigger crops and more money for farmers around here this year. Swift's Red Steer Fertilizer! Successful farmers are using Swift's. They are ordering theirs now. Have you ordered yours?

I know the best fertilizer practice in this locality. I know what our Agricultural College recommends. I can help you select the right kind and the right time.

Along David Creek

Summer's gone. Fall is here again. Many changes have occurred since last Fall. So many of our dear friends have passed to the eternal home. It makes me feel lonely, but I am glad there are many blessings—Good crops of corn, tobacco and hay have been made and every one seems to be busy gathering in their crops for winter.

Mrs. R. R. Davis who has been ill for some time was taken to the Baptist Hospital on Tuesday for treatment. We trust she will improve.

Mrs. W. B. Duling who has been a patient at the Baptist Hospital has returned to her home very much better.

We are glad to hear encouraging reports about Mrs. Norman Farrar who is improving in hospital.

Miss Edna Davis visited Catawba last week-end. The doctors said she was getting on nicely, and would soon be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagner visited the Methodist Sunday School last Sunday morning. Mrs. Wagner gave an interesting talk in which she urged the Sunday School to come up to the standard and therefore do better work. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson while in town.

Mr. Road Boss please send some one down to clean bushes on road at bridge near Mr. A. B. Thornhill's. If the bad holes are not filled up before winter on the new road from Tower Hill to Bent Creek will be almost impossible for our mail carriers and children going to school.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Lewis, of Richmond, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Porter, Mr. R. F. & P. Ry., and a life long friend of Mr. Porter.

Remember we have a grocery department and buy butter, eggs and chickens at highest market price. Next door to Farmer's National Bank.

How many times have you heard this expression—"Will you meet the price?" Why not patronize the man who makes the low price.

Horrible Accident

Tuesday while sawing wood at his home near Piney Ridge Church, Mr. Ben H. Moore was horribly managed by the saw. In some way the saw flew off and split his head open and otherwise mangled his body from which he died a short while afterwards. Deceased was a splendid young man, 27 years of age, superintendent of Piney Ridge Sabbath School, at which place his remains were interred this afternoon at 3 P. M. He is survived by his wife and four children and the family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Sunday School Thoughts For Thoughtful People

It is generally conceded that the perpetuity of the state and the welfare of the home depend as upon religious convictions; that only religion can make us respect each other's rights and live unselfishly; but above all that only religion can bring us solace in the hour of bereavement and death. Now then there are 168 hours in every week and less than one hour is devoted to religious instruction in the Sunday schools of our country. Here in our own community less than one-half of the people avail themselves of the blessings that may be raised there. It is not time for all thoughtful people, all well-meaning people to get behind the scenes to make our Sunday schools bigger and better?

Smith-Davidson

On Monday evening, Sept. 26, at 2 o'clock Miss Mary Edith Davidson, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Samuel Davidson, and Mr. David LeGrand Smith, son of Mr. R. W. Smith, Sr., both of Appomattox, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, Rev. A. I. Caudle, officiating. The ceremony was witnessed only by the family and a few immediate friends. The couple, accompanied by Misses Nan Caldwell, Frances Smith and Lucille Marshall, left immediately for Lynchburg where it is thought they will make their home in Lynchburg.

FREE—16-PAGE COOK-ERY SUPPLEMENT

Ide Bailey Allen, America's foremost authority on household economics and cooking, has prepared an elaborate 16-page supplement covering these topics for distribution in conjunction with the Sunday New York American dated Oct. 2, 1927.

No extra cost for the supplement—it is included together with the regular magazine, and features sections of the Sunday New York American to-day. You will find this supplement most interesting and valuable.

Will be a lawn party on the Presbyterian Church grounds on Friday night, Oct. 1st. Benevolent church. All are invited.
